

South Carolina

Exemption Certificate

The South Carolina Exemption Certificate is a state issued certificate and is subject to the discretion of the tax administrator. Businesses that do not have a certificate must apply at the South Carolina Department of Revenue in order to get one issued. More information can be found at the South Carolina Department of Revenue or by clicking here. If you need a replacement certificate, contact the South Carolina Department of Revenue at (844) 898-8542.
